

2nd Round Win - French Open

Wednesday, 30 May 2007

Serena Williams advances after a 6-0, 7-6, (7-3) victory over Milagros Sequera of Venezuela to reach the 3rd round of the French Open.

"It was weird," said Williams, who won the Australian Open in January.

"I didn't feel like I played my best tennis throughout the whole match. I was kind of struggling out there to get the rhythm." "I honestly didn't feel my game at all today," Williams said.

"I was just kind of a little bit everywhere today."

"A feisty young player, and a motivated player," Williams said of Sequera.

"It was definitely a tough match."

Serena will face Michaella Krajicek of the Netherlands in her 3rd round match.
