

Quarterfinal Showdown - French Open
Saturday, 02 June 2007

Serena Williams overcame Dinara Safina of Russia 6-2, 6-3 in an hour and 16 minutes at the French Open. Serena took a 4-0 lead in the first set, however struggled at times during the second set. "That was definitely better today" stated Serena following the match. "She hit hard, then she hit lobs, then she hit soft balls," Serena stated. "She really gave me a lot of different pace." Serena will face Justine Henin of Belgium in the quarterfinal match.
